TITLE I - The Convention

Canon I - Election of a Bishop

Sec. 1.01 Whenever, in the Providence of God, it may be necessary to choose a Bishop, the call for such election shall be made by resolution of the Standing Committee, which shall give, through its Secretary, notice of such election to every Clergy member, Parish, and Mission of the Diocese. Following such call to election a Search Committee shall be composed by electing one (1) cleric and one (1) member of the laity from each deanery. In addition, the Ecclesiastical Authority may appoint one, three, or five members. The organization and operation of the Search Committee shall be determined by the members. The prayers of the Clergy and Laity shall be bidden, that God may supply a Pastor after His own heart.

Sec. 1.02 The election of a Bishop or Provisional Bishop as provided in Canon 1.05 shall be made in either the Annual or a Special meeting of the Convention called for that purpose. The Secretary of the Standing Committee shall notify the Diocese, through the Secretary of Convention, of such meeting in the manner prescribed by Article V, Section 3, of the Constitution.

Sec. 1.03 When the Convention has been called to order by its President, Prayers shall be offered, together with the reading of appropriate lessons of Holy Scripture. Nominations shall be made from such number of qualified Clergymen as the Convention may desire. Upon the close of nominations, prayers shall be offered after which, tellers having been appointed, the Convention shall proceed to ballot.

Sec. 1.04 If two-thirds of all the Clergy entitled to vote be present, and two-thirds of all the Parishes and Missions entitled to vote be represented, then a majority of each order present shall determine a choice. If such two-thirds of the Clergy, Parishes, and Missions be not present, then two-thirds of the votes in each order present shall be necessary to determine a choice. The vote of the Clergy and the Laity shall be taken separately, and a concurrence of the majority of the votes cast in each order shall be required to constitute an election. If there be no election subsequent ballots may be taken until, by God's Holy Spirit, a Bishop be duly chosen and declared elected.

Sec. 1.05 When the Diocese is under the provisional charge of a bishop pursuant to Title III.13 of the Canons of The Episcopal Church (the "Provisional Bishop") for a period of more than eighteen (18) months, the Standing Committee by resolution may call for the election of the of the Provisional Bishop as the Bishop of the Diocese, which shall give, through its Secretary, notice of such election to every Clergy member, Parish, and Mission of the Diocese. When proceeding with an election of the Provisional Bishop under this canon, only the Provisional Bishop shall be considered as a candidate in such an election and no other nominations whether from the floor or otherwise shall be made. In an election of the Provisional Bishop under this canon, two-thirds of all the Clergy and delegates entitled to vote must be present, and two-thirds of all the Parishes and Missions entitled to vote must be represented, then two-thirds of each order present shall determine the election. The vote of the Clergy and the Laity shall be taken separately, and a concurrence of two-thirds of the votes cast in each order shall be required to constitute an election. Should the vote fail to elect the Provisional Bishop as the Bishop of the Diocese, the Provisional Bishop shall continue to serve pursuant to Title III.13 of the Canons of The Episcopal Church, subject to the Diocesan Convention taking further action to terminate the Provisional Bishop's status as such or until an election of a Bishop has occurred pursuant to Title I, Canon I of the Diocesan Canons.

Canon II - Members of Convention

Sec. 2.01 One (1) week before the meeting of any Convention of the Diocese, the Ecclesiastical Authority shall prepare a list of all the Clergymen of the Church canonically resident in the Diocese together with their respective cures and domiciles. Such list shall be laid before the Convention at the opening of the meeting and prefixed to the Journal. In the said list shall be declared the names of those Clergymen entitled to seats and votes in the Convention and such declaration shall be taken as presumptive evidence of the right of those indicated to seats and votes in the Convention. Every Clergyman licensed by the Ecclesiastical Authority to officiate in the Diocese but not canonically resident shall be entitled to seat and voice without vote.

Sec. 2.02 Lay Delegates and Alternates to Convention shall be communicants in good standing and be elected by the congregation or, should the Congregation fail to elect, by the Vestry or Bishop's Committee, and their appointment shall be certified by the Chairman and Secretary of the meeting at which they were elected, on forms provided by the Secretary of Convention for that purpose. For Annual Conventions the list of Delegates and Alternates' names and addresses shall be forwarded to the diocesan office by July 1, and for Special Conventions at least twenty-one 21 days prior to the time appointed for the meeting. A copy of this list shall be forwarded to the Secretary of Convention and the appropriate Deanery President. Said list shall be presumptive evidence of the right to seat, voice, and vote of Lay Delegates in the Convention named therein. Thereafter, a copy of this list shall be available to those who request it. Lay Deputies to General Convention have seat and voice in Convention, whether or not they are delegates.

Sec. 2.03 All congregations shall be entitled to the following representation, based upon the latest available annual parochial report:

over 700 average Sunday attendance 8 delegates

Sec. 2.04 Alternate Delegates to Convention shall be seated in the absence of the regular appointees in the order in which their names appear on the certificates as described in Sec. 2.02 herein. This order is normally determined by the greater number of votes received at the time of election.

Sec. 2.05 It shall be the duty of the Treasurer one (1) day prior to Convention to furnish the Secretary of Convention with a list of Parishes and Missions delinquent in the payment of their Diocesan and Church Program assessments, and the Secretary shall omit their names from the roll call of Convention; provided that on the payment in full by any Parish or Mission of its existing delinquencies its name shall be restored to the roll and its delegates seated.

Sec. 2.06 When the right of any person to a seat in Convention is disputed or the right of any Parish or Mission to representation therein, the matter shall be referred to the Committee on Credentials and a recommendation be made to the Convention for appropriate action.

Canon III - Quorum and Members

Sec. 3.01 A quorum shall consist of one-third of all the Clergy entitled to seats and votes together with at least one (1) Lay Delegate from each of one-third of all the Parishes and Missions entitled to representation. The Committee may nominate candidates if no other nominations are received for a particular office. The report of the Committee shall be presented to each Parish and Mission as soon as possible before the Convention. This procedure shall not preclude further nominations from the floor of Convention, nor does it imply that all names submitted be accepted by the Committee as nominees.
- 3) A Committee on Resolutions--The Committee shall receive all proposed resolutions not less than sixty (60) days before the Convention. The report of the Committee shall be presented prior to the Convention and shall include the Committee's recommendations. Sec. 7.04 The Secretary shall provide a corrected voting list on which each voter shall be checked as he casts his ballot. The ballots shall be deposited in boxes provided for the purpose. The four (4) candidates in each order receiving the next largest majority vote shall be deemed elected as Alternates. If there be a tie vote for the fourth Deputy or Alternate in either order, or if there be no majority, then the election shall be governed by the provisions for second or subsequent ballots.

In all other elections anyone receiving a majority of votes, or in case of a vote by orders, a majority of both orders, shall be deemed elected. If more than the required number to be elected to any office receive a majority vote, the candidates receiving the most votes, or if the vote be by orders the largest vote in each order, shall be declared elected. If by reason of a tie it be impossible to decide which candidates for any office are elected, or if the entire number to be elected be not chosen on the first ballot, subsequent ballots shall be taken until the choice of Convention is clear.

On a second or subsequent ballot, the voting shall be confined to the number plus one of the Clergymen or Laymen in each order to be elected who shall have received the most votes on the previous ballot. If by reason of a tie vote the above provisions cannot be carried out, the names of all persons receiving such tie vote shall appear on the ballot in accordance with the previous vote of either order, and shall be voted on by both orders.

On a second or subsequent ballot anyone receiving a plurality of votes, or in case of a vote by order, a plurality vote of both orders, shall be declared elected.

Sec. 7.07 At the close of the Convention all ballots cast shall be sealed in envelopes properly endorsed and shall be preserved by the Secretary until the next Annual Convention. The envelopes shall not be opened unless the canvass be questioned. Upon the written request of two (2) Clergymen and two (2) Laymen addressed to the Ecclesiastical Authority, the Standing Committee and the Secretary of Convention shall re-canvass the ballots in the presence of the Ecclesiastical Authority; and their decision shall be final.

- b) Each member is provided the means of participating in all matters before the Committee, including the capacity to propose, or to interpose an objection to, a specific action to be taken by the Committee.
- c) The Committee has adopted and implemented a means of verifying both of the following: (1) A person participating in the meeting is a member of Committee or other person entitled to participate in the meeting; and (2) All actions of or votes by the Committee are taken or cast only by the voting members and not by persons who are not members of Committee. In addition any action that the Committee is required or permitted to take may be taken without a meeting if all Committee members consent in writing to the action. Such action by written consent shall have the same force and effect as any other validly approved Committee action. All such consents shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Committee.

Sec. 8.03 The powers, functions, and duties of the Standing Committee shall be those prescribed by the Constitution and Canons of the Episcopal Church and of this Diocese.

Convention will thereafter elect one (1) member for a three year term.

Sec. 9.04 The Diocesan Council shall act for the Convention in the interim between its meetings as specified by the Constitution of this Diocese. It shall carry out the instructions of Convention and perform other such duties as may be delegated to it by the Canons. - b) Each member is provided the means of participating in all matters before the Council, including the capacity to propose, or to interpose an objection to, specific action to be taken by the council.
- c) The Council has adopted and implemented a means of verifying both of the following:

In addition any action that the Council is required or permitted to take may be taken without a meeting if all Council members consent in writing to the action. Such action by written consent shall have the same force and effect as any other validly approved Council action. All such consents shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Council.

Sec. 9.06 The Diocesan Council shall submit to each Annual Convention a proposed balanced budget reflecting revenue and expenditures. A copy of said budget and the appropriate assessment figure for each parish and mission shall be distributed to each parish and mission at least sixty (60) days before the Annual Convention.

Sec. 9.07 The Secretary of the Council shall report to the Council any member who shall have absented himself without excuse, satisfactory to the Council, for three (3) consecutive meetings, whereupon such office shall be declared vacant. Should any vacancy occur in the Council through death, resignation, unexcused absence, or through any other cause, the Council shall fill the vacancy by election of a qualified person to serve until a successor or successors is or are elected at the next annual Diocesan Convention, who shall serve the balance of any unexpired term. The name of any person so elected or appointed to fill any vacancy shall be immediately certified to the Secretary of Convention.

which must be paid to the Rector of an organized Parish in this Diocese. In the event that such congregation does not continue to pay said minimum compensation to its Rector such procedures as necessary to achieve minimum compensation shall be enacted by the Diocesan Council. Inability (1) to achieve minimum compensation by this process, (2) to meet canonical Diocesan financial obligations, or (3) to conform to the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese shall result in the reversion of such congregation to Diocesan Mission status, after due process by the Bishop and Council.

- d) Satisfactory testimony by a certificate of the Vicar, Missionary, or Church Warden, or otherwise, shall be given that not less than twenty-five (25) persons of canonical voting age who are members of such Church have habitually, for at least twelve (12) months preceding such application, attended Divine Service in such Church or congregation.
- e) The application for admission shall be in writing and shall be accompanied by a copy of the resolution, adopted by the Vestry subsequent to organization. The proposed Parish shall organize by adopting a Constitution and Bylaws, which shall include, among other things, the name by which the Parish shall be legally known and the promises made in the application to the Ecclesiastical Authority; and by election of a Vestry, from which shall be chosen two (2) Wardens.
- f) The Rector of the Parish shall be a member and the President of the Vestry. The Parish, if incorporated, shall be as the Articles of Incorporation and the Bylaws provide. The Parish Bylaws shall further provide that the Constitution and Canons in the Diocese of San Joaquin be incorporated in said Bylaws and be a part thereof; and said Bylaws shall provide that in case of conflict, the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese shall prevail. A copy of said Bylaws shall be certified by the Secretary or Clerk and shall be kept on file by the Registrar-Historiographer of the Diocese.
- g) All property of an incorporated Parish is irrevocably dedicated for religious (education, health and welfare) purposes, and upon dissolution of a Parish, all properties, investments and assets shall be conveyed only to the Protestant Episcopal Bishop of San Joaquin, a Corporation Sole, to be held in trust by it or to be disposed of at its discretion. Sec. 20.02 There shall be an Annual Parish Meeting for the election of Vestrymen and the transaction of other business held in each Parish and Mission after November 1st and before January 21st. Notice of the Annual Meeting shall be given during Divine Service on the Sunday preceding the date appointed and on the Sunday following names of the Vestrymen elected and the nature of the business transacted shall be announced. Sec. 20.05 The ballots cast for the election of Vestrymen shall be preserved together with the report of the tellers and the voting list, if there be one, until the next annual meeting and shall be open only to the Ecclesiastical Authority.

Sec. 20.06 Any question of procedure in the meetings or the election not covered by these Canons shall be decided by the majority vote of the members present, but should canvass of an election be questioned after the close of the meeting, it shall be referred for decision to the Bishop acting with the advice of the Standing Committee of the Diocese.

Sec. 20.07 Should any congregation desire to have boundaries established, the Clergyman in charge may make application to that effect to the Bishop and Standing Committee, setting forth the boundaries desired and the reasons therefore. Any boundaries so established may be changed, modified, or removed, by the Bishop and Standing Committee, or by subsequent application by the congregation, with the approval of the Bishop and Standing Committee.

Sec. 20.08 With the consent of Convention any Parish financially able to meet its parochial and Diocesan expenses may become incorporated provided that its articles of incorporation meet the approval of the Chancellor of the Diocese and of the Diocesan Council. Whenever a Parish becomes incorporated it shall be competent to hold title to property belonging to the Congregation, but should such Parish become unable to meet its parochial and Diocesan expenses without Diocesan aid for three (3) successive years, the directors of said incorporated Parish shall transfer its real property and invested funds to the Corporation Sole in trust for the Congregation.

Sec. 20.09 No Congregation, either Mission or Parish, shall locate or change the location of its buildings without the previous consent of the Diocesan Council.

Sec. 21.08 No Parish shall incur any indebtedness for current expenses in excess of the amount required to balance the total operating budget for the current year. Any indebtedness for current expenses unpaid at the close of the fiscal year shall be written into the budget for the succeeding twelve (12) months.
